

CASE REPORT

SYMMETRIC PERIPHERAL GANGRENE OF THE LOWER LIMBS IN A CASE OF COMPLICATED FALCIPARUM MALARIA

PC Bhattacharyya<sup>1</sup>, Jagdish Prasad Agarwal<sup>2</sup> and M Sharma<sup>3</sup>

Department of <sup>1</sup>Medicine, <sup>2</sup>Pediatrics, <sup>3</sup>Radiology, Downtown Hospital Ltd, Guwahati, Assam, India

Abstract. Association of symmetric peripheral gangrene (SPG) with falciparum malaria infection is a relatively uncommon clinical entity. Here we report a case of complicated falciparum malaria with SPG involving both lower limbs from the mid-calf downwards, probably due to antibody mediated vasculitis.

---

Correspondence: Dr PC Bhattacharyya, Zoo-Narengi Road, 5th Bylane, Guwahati 781021, Assam, India.

Tel: (0361) 2410304 / 2414544

E-mail: p_c_bhatta@hotmail.com